As we welcome the spring season, I'm delighted to see the sunshine returning, the days growing longer, and our community coming alive with new energy. Spring is a wonderful reminder that it's time to step outside, enjoy fresh air, and reconnect with the beauty around us. Whether it's a gentle walk, relaxing on the back deck, or simply enjoying time with friends, this season offers countless opportunities to lift our spirits and enjoy the warmth together.

I'm also excited to share that we'll be offering more trips and outings in the coming months. From tastings and local museums to lunches out and special events, our goal is to give everyone more chances to explore, socialize, and have fun. We encourage you to join us, try something new, and make the most of this vibrant season. Spring is here—and we look forward to enjoying it with you.

Best,

Emily, Allison, Claire & Ashley
